I feel a loss of control, I realize what I'm doing is wrong, but more than that... I DON'T WANT TO BE DOING IT, but the Y"H is one tough cookie, he'll tell why you can do it just one more time and it will all be ok.

We cannot let the Y"H start speaking to us, the moment we feel an urge. We must do something drastic, shut down your computer, run outside ,do something, because the Y"H is very strong and the more we give in the stronger he gets!

My mind shuts down and theres only one thing is this world:acting out.everything else is tiny in comparison.nothing is enjoyable.nothing is even real.only this. scary right?

SAME THING , uri. It's scary, at that moment I don't want to cont. my struggle cuz I can't imagine going without it.

I know it is not easy, but it is at this point, that the only thing we have left is our Seichal. As Rebbi Nachman says, we are all fighting with the Koach Hadimyon. L"M 25:

The Koach of imagination is the lowest level of the brain. This is the level that the Beheimos have. This is the level that we are struggling with when we can think of nothing else. The only important thing in the world is to act out. Everything else is meaningless. Only the Koach Hadimyon can make you continue to act out, even if you knew you were to lose $10,000. The koach Hadimyon makes you believe that the $10,000 has no importance....even if you are poor.

And Rebbi Nachman says that the only way to beat this b'heimah, is to use your seical. The seichel is very strong, and it comes from the higher level of the brain that the b'heima does not have.

My seichel tells me only one thing....the TRUTH. Yes, I feel that the only thing that has any importance right now is the lust, BUT, my seichel knows 10000% that it is all a lie of the y"h. A lie = "an untruth".

And, it is my seichel, (if I choose to listen to him), that tells me to focus on how I feel, AFTER the acting out has been completed....this is the real TRUTH.

The seichel Rebbe Nachman says is Gadol Meode.

The dimyon, is pure feeling. I FEEL that I absolutely need this.

The Seichel, is pure knowingness, I know that this is BAD, and I do NOT need it.

but at that point all my seichal does is rationalize.

Trying:

The seichel does not rationalize. The seichel is PURE EMMES.

The Imagination is pure SHEKER.

Rationalization means that the koach HaBeihme', is coming in and trying to distort your seichel. You have only 1 true emmesdika voice that knows the truth. It is only immediately afterwards that the 2nd voice, (the voice of the dimyon (fantasy) comes in to distort it and confuse you.) Listen to the first voice, and hold on to it...no matter what.

Sorry, don't get it. I argue with my seichal. Y'know what, how about we define seichal first? Are you talking about the brain vs mind? And , practically whats the diff?

but at that point all my seichal does is rationalize.

Trying:

Your seichal does not rationalize. Your "seichal" is the pure knowingness of truth...of what is good for you.

Your seichal is #1, and always jumps in first, and says....."hey, let's not do this. And you know it will be disaster if you go ahead with it... just like you did before. Remember how sorry you were when you did it anyway????"

And here is the definition of "rationalization". After hearing the voice #1 of your seichal, now guess who jumps in....right. Mr. dimyon, the low level of the brain called imagination, and fantasy.(Things which are not true are called fantasy, and imagination). He starts to rationalize, i.e to BEND the truth of Mr. Seichel...voice #1. And he says, "yeah I know what you mean, but it will be soooooooo fun. Better yet, don't even think of that first voice, let's just go and have some real enjoyment before it is too late (he says to you). don't think too much just go with moment.
