

Determined and Confident.

Posted by kvetched - 18 Jun 2011 18:13

Shalom/Hello there,

Having almost seen my entire world collapse due to this stuff I am resolved to beat it. I am reading "In the shadows of the net" which is a helpful insight. Awaiting a copy of the 12 steps (with it's Jewish emphasis).

Feeling good and confident as well as cautious!

It has ripped a hole into my relationship which will take time and trust to heal. I think also it has changed us and I am not sure things will ever truly be as they were. However that is the price I will have to pay and hopefully that too will change?

Time heals wounds. Sometimes it takes a lot of time.
