

I'M BACK

Posted by Kedusha252 - 29 Aug 2011 00:48

Hello Everyone,

I am back from the summer and back on guardyoureyes.org. I see there is a new website. Very nice.

Anyway, I am hoping this is the year, this is the time when I finally break free. I have had a tough year and looking to get my life back on track.

One of the ways my life can get back on track is if I am clean, keep my eyes looking at things they should look at and not fall to urbaion.

HHope to be in touch soon.
