

I may not be about to fall, but I am about to give up...

Please daven for me. Hashem will know who "longbeach" is.

I am so overwhelmed right now, and have no one to turn to. In the last few years my life has taken several "bad turns." Is it any wonder I wanted to escape, and ended up in the internet dump? (No, I am NOT headed there now, and I am NOT GOING THERE!).

I have been through illness, pain, the loss of my closest friend, trouble at work, and financial problems that make me feel I am hemorrhaging money. Most days I can make it work, stay balanced, focussed and moving forward. The last week (for most of us on the east coast) have been a roller coaster. I am "here" for people who need refuge from the hurricane, space in my fridge, , Ice for those who need it for coolers, electrical outlets so everyone can charge their stuff, an open ear for those in pain...My house has been open to many people at all hours...

But I have no one, no support. And right now I could really use some.

Badly.

Just knowing someone out there is reading this and gives a hoot would really help right now.

So, please, include me in your prayers, and drop me a reply.

Thanks,

-longbeach

Dear friend,

hang in there and our tfillois on your behalf will certainly bring you desired yeshuois. We stand to benefit, too: kol hamispalel b'ad chaveroi, ne'ane t'chilo. I can surely use that, so thanks for an opportunity to daven for you.

However, I noticed that I'm replying few hours after you posted. So do you have anyone to call or email directly for immediate response? My email is barmitzva@writeme.com, but I am not a skilled professional to even know how to handle a crisis. You can email me any time you want, but I think it'd be good to have someone a phonecall away to drag you out of a bad (mental) spot.

Long Beach: Wow I shed a tear in my heart for your turmoil. Keep posting. I just said a prayer in english to Hashem.

We are with you and hashem is always with you.

and, by the way, I made it through day 10. GYE really helps me with my lack of internet self control. I just go here first, read and share, and get a lot of chizuk.

dear longbeach - 10 days is an ETERNITY when you are in a bad place. I do not know how you do it, I am in a very easy place compared to you, so please be aware that your strength is not lost or wasted. You are in fact (although you dont realise) actually inspiring others (i.e. me), so thank you.
