

Appeal - AKA Put Your Money Where Your Mouth Is

Posted by gibbor120 - 11 Sep 2011 03:17

I have been on this site for a few months and in that short time it has changed the way I think (for the better) and improved my relationship with my wife. I have made great friends here and great progress. It's no secret that guard is striving for even better resources to help all of us and to advertise so others can benefit as well. This all costs $$$$. If you are here, you have benefited - period.

I am starting this appeal thread in the hope that we can inspire each other to give. It's the season of teshuva, tefillah, and tzedakah. Let's give our tzedakah dollars here. Maybe we can

For me, a $36 donation is a big donation. I start the pledging with a donation I recently made of $54.

Tizku L'mitzvos... Let's hope that very soon kol harisha kula tichleh all evil will be abolished and there will no longer be a need for this site.

I wish you all a shana tova umesukah and a k'siva v'chasima tova get bards to give out an autographed bottle of Woodford for donations over $200

Keep the pledges coming...

Maybe I'm not understanding something, but I clicked on the link you posted to donate, and it took me to what looked like a place to buy a domain.

You are correct 1daat; there was a bad link in the second post.

I deleted it now.

However, there is an orange button on the top right of this screen, where you can donate.

Thank you and tizku l'mitzvois
