

URGENT - WE NEED YOUR HELP TO DECIDE A NAME

Posted by the.guard - 26 Mar 2012 15:36

After speaking over with some big Rabbanim, we decided that it would be best for everyone to divide GYE's Prevention (filters, shmiras ainyaim, etc.) as a completely different website, under a different organization...

We're brain-storming right now for a name and we need your help...

One good name might be: venishmartem.com (which says "Prevention" clearly)

Another possibility is losasuru.com - like on this flyer (the organizer of the event said we can have the name. He will be working with us anyway).

Some else suggested Facethechallenge.com

The name should preferably include not just internet protection, but shmiras ainayim as well...

Here are some other ideas that were put forth so far:

protectyoureyes

secureyourhome

purehomes

cleaninternet

kosherinternet

glatthome

glatweb

glateyes

koshereyes

vehiskadishtem

internetshemira.com

computersafety.com

Meetthechallenge.com

Meetingthechallenge.com

Maybe the prevention side could keep Guardyoureyes and this side could be breakfree.org or

Just a suggestion - whatever name you choose, make sure to register it as .com, .org, .net and maybe other TLDs as well, to avoid future confusion.

maybe:

ShmireNet

Netaddicts

NetProfit

something like that...nah, I'm too lazy to change all my bookmarks

I liked koshereyes.

Also, webshmira.

Thanks for all your feedback.

We closed on venishmartem.com/org

Mazal Tov to Klal Yisrael. A new holy org/site was born today! :D

Much bracha. If there is still room to wiggle I suggests something with a positive connotation- something that implies growth not just protection.
