HEY THERE! GOOD EREV SHABBOS TO ALL! i am posting this because i realise that in addition to other changes i need to make within myself, i really need a sponsor- somebody who has reached 90 days who can help me... just to prove to myself that it can be done and assist me. because im fighting a losing battle over here- i have never come anywhere near to 90 days. i have tried using the partner/sponsor program but never got any replies. i am 21, partly chabad/modern orth/chasdish, location doesnt really matter because id only like to keep in touch (primarily) via email and chat.

if anyone could help me make this HUGE change in my life i would really appreciate it.

THANK YOU!
