

Tcholent Party!

Posted by Avrom - 07 Apr 2013 17:24

The new zman around the corner... I'm wondering if there would be any interest to form a "weekend-group"(On the forum!). Speaking to many yeshiva-guys myself included (yes, i do speak to myself:)) it seems that most falls occur from Thursday night until mozte shabbs. Being that Internet access is restricted in yeshivas.

Even for non-yeshiva guys, there may be some weekend-opportunists , that would be welcome to join.

You would have to update once a week (against the law?-) sharing thoughts and how the week went. I think it would be a major chizuk boost!

If you have any other ideas, please share

Good idea, i think that could be step 2. Lets first focus on forming a group be'h - well take it from there and let the chevra decide.

I'm joining too. I go to public school though, so the experience is a bit different.

Thursday night is always the hardest night. I think it's because the seven sefiros are connected with the seven days of the week and Thursday night - Friday is Yesod.

I always thought that Thursday is the hardest because we are stressed out from the whole week and are sleep deprived by then.

A tzenter! A tzenter!

by the way seems like well also have kabbalah-shiur - for that you need at least 7 guys that represent the seven sfiras...

There are ten sefiros. The 7 of Sefiras Haomer and 3 more of CHaBaD. That's why Rashbi needed ten people for the Idra Zuta, one for each sefira.

Here endeth the first shiur.
