

New year, new member

Posted by HashemYeracheim - 28 Sep 2009 22:45

Just wanted to introduce myself.

I've been married for 7 years. I've been struggling with looking at porn for a long time. I was a bt and when I was growing up there was no particular stigma attached. Since becoming frum, I've struggled with stopping, and thought I had it beat. Apparently not, and I've relapsed a couple of times in the past few years.

This is something I need to beat for my sake and for my family's sake, and b'ezras Hashem, I am determined to do so. I'm hoping that the chizuk I will find on these boards will aid me in this.

Hope that everyone fasted well and is full of inspiration for the year ahead!

=====

Re: New year, new member

Posted by bardichev - 29 Sep 2009 20:47

nw london??!!

a member named london went AWOL on us

if you see him tell him he is missed!

B

=====

Re: New year, new member

Posted by Kedusha - 29 Sep 2009 21:06

bardichev wrote on 29 Sep 2009 20:47:

nw london??!!

a member named london went AWOL on us

if you see him tell him he is missed!

B

Why not send him a PM?

=====

Re: New year, new member

Posted by HashemYeracheim - 30 Sep 2009 22:19

Maybe London Ontario....

=====

Re: New year, new member

Posted by Sturggle - 30 Sep 2009 22:35

welcome HW.

I hope it doesn't rain too much in NW London and you can really use your sukkah!

=====

=====

Re: New year, new member

Posted by Holy Yid - 01 Oct 2009 02:05

Welcome. We are all BT. The story is told the someone was once introduced to a certain Rebbe. The Rebbe asked him where do you learn? He relpied that he learns in Ohr Samieych but he is not a bal tesheva. The Rebbe then asked him and why aren't you a bal teshuva? Teshuva is living your life closer to Hashem. It is a life with Hashem as a much bigger focus. That is what we are all doing here. Welcome home.

=====

=====