

In need of a friend

Posted by Othniel - 25 Jul 2013 21:36

I've been on GYE for mouths now. I've learning a lot and now have hope. But to be honest I have not really committed. The Chizuk emails are great and I feel recharged after reading them, but I don't have internet at home and can't get to the library every day to read them, plus I don't think they're enough. I think having someone to talk with over the phone, someone I can confide in would help. Anyone!?
