I DID IT!!!! I reached 90 days!!!

From now on this will be my main thread where I post news and ask for advice. My old threads have irrelevant names now, and one of them was moved to BB.

I feel amazing! Time to do another 90 days!

I was just scarily close to a fall... hands are shaking. I'm on day 98 and I almost fall???

Someone put a forbidden photo in a place online yesterday evening. I reported him, and it was removed right away. But the damage to my brain was already done. Today I was horrifyingly close to a fall. I have Jewish music on in the background now to help me focus on G-d. Im in the office trying to focus and get some work done.

I need hashem!! I really cant do this on my own!!

Mazel Tov. I am very happy for you.

I remember the feeling when I made 90 days. I was sure that I had overcome the problem. I cannot think of a nice way to say this, but if you are like me then 90 was a nice goal but afterwards it is really IRRELEVANT. And believe me I am telling you this because I want you to remain sober. (Dov tried to tell me this at the time, but I didn't really pay attention).

May HaShem grant us sobriety and sanity one day at a time.

Today I reached 100 days. Every day is a victory! Day after day... just for today...

May HaShem grant you and all of us another day of sobriety and sanity.

Just to share with you that I have a friend in SA who is over 10 years clean, and i can tell you that he does not feel any more a winner today than he did on the day he fell ten years ago; and that is what keeps him sober.

I have to remember that it does not matter how long I am sober, the most natural thing for me to do today is to act-out (I did it for over 20 years with no hope of stopping). Every day I remain clean and sane is a gift.

Are you talking to anyone about it? I've found that to be most helpful.

Actually, just writing here made it easier.

I was almost about to sms my wife, when I got an sms from her about how much she misses me (I was at the office). That helped a lot! I went through the rest of the day without incidents.

Just need to write this here. I am clean 140 days and I am utterly disgusted and hating myself right now. I didnt fall, but it was very close, and only external factors prevented it. Had it been up to me I would have been fallen right now.

It just feels hopeless right now... I hope I'll get over it. I noticed that lately I've been less sensitive to images on magazine stands etc, less made sure to look away wehn seeing people in the street. I used to be very aware and constantly look away when I was new here. I need to get back to that! I cant let this ruin my life!

I didnt actually fall... but I feel just as if I did.

Glad to hear that you caught yourself (or that you were caught). Is there a way you could reach out for help before a potential fall instead of after?
