

Please help me Chaverim!

Posted by lipa.bob - 27 Jan 2014 11:59

I don't know if you guys remember me but I was here a while ago I stared a big topic about becoming a Talmid Chochom even after I slip-I had a hard time thinking that is possible and you guys told me how wrong I was.

I must say since then things went for the worst. I started watching porn every time I come home. I just don't know what to do anymore.... I am considered from the top guys in Yeshiva. I learn about 12 hours a day but I just keep slipping.....

I am at Yeshiva the whole month- so I cant really read the emails etc. I just dont know what to do....

PLEASE HELP!
