

Attention Elya K, Mevakesh and Me
Posted by the.guard - 11 Sep 2008 20:03

Dearest Elya K, Mevakesh and Me,

I finally figured out how to make you guys into "global Moderators" of this forum. You can now delete posts! So if you see something inappropriate, please delete it right away!

You can also do a host of other cool things now as well...

I can't tell you how much I appreciate having you guys on this forum. The chizuk that goes on here brings tears to my eyes! Keep up the wonderful work. There can be no greater Tikkun than to strengthen others. Not only is this a form of Teshuvah, and not only does this strengthen us in turn, but we are actually "uplifting" our past sins, in a sense, by using the very falls we had - to help others! This turns the sins into merits (like Chaza"l say happens with Teshuvah from love :-)

I would be happy one day after 120 to have a special place in gan-eden together with all of you. It will be the "GuardUrEyes" palace of Hashem's glory. All those who have beaten this and helped others as well, will be there :-)

Wow. I am honored. Its good to be able to delete the posts posted by the Yetzer Hara himself who thinks he can trip our members right here in the forum! Mr. Yetzer Hara, you are way off base! You missed the boat! There is no room for your garbage on this site!

Chazak V'Ematz!

There must be a special place in Heaven for GYE, the that is the person who started this whole site. (I hope I got your name right.)

There should be a place for all of us with tshuvah.

i had to delete the SECOND message first - it would not let me delete the FIRST one without deleting the 2nd one.by the way, i was also almost drawn to it - this is the nature of an addiction - it NEVER goes away.this is why i must stay connected to this forum!
