

jerusalem 12 step group

Sorry if this is an asked and answered question. I'm wondering if theres a 12 step group somewhere in Jerusalem i could attend. Ive been reading the chizuk emails for a long time now, without much success in sobriety, and im looking to get some support. My impression is that few people can tackle this issue by themselves. Anyway thanks for the help.

Yes, there is a GYE group (which is running very low on membership nowadays, so if anyone is thinking f joining please be in contact)

However, I will stress that if you are ready to go to an SA meeting then you should look here for more info.

BTW, The forum is also a tool, and a very good one when used to it's full potential, so don't be a stranger, post away!!

I dont know that im qualified to say what kind of meeting i need to go to. Im just a BT of around 2 years trying to conquer a 9 year old addiction. I Would be interested in a local group though.

The forum is a little too hard to navigate for me. I'm much more acclimated to reddit, which i feel has a more user-friendly interface. I cant get the hang of this forum..maybe a GYE subreddit is in order. Anyway appreciate the response you are more than welcome to contact me, it would be a pleasure to discuss it with you!

You can send me a PM (bubble icon on the bottom of my profile picture).

dms, it's three/four of us right now, one decided to go bird watching.
