

Thanks for the help - I past 90 Days
Posted by yankeld - 19 Oct 2009 00:33

I passed the 90 day mark a little while ago. It was shortly after Yom Kippur and I've lost track since.

A tremendous thanks goes out to all you out there giving support and chizuk on the regular e-mails which make a big difference.

I feel some inspirational writing coming on. Going out to night seder now perhaps I'll write something when I get back.

YankelD! :'((tears of joy!)

MAZAL TOV YANKeID,

You have made my day!

If you send me in a short summary of your life-time struggle, how your wife found out, and how you made your recent progress (what tips you used, what helped you the most about GYE), I will bl'n put it into a Chizuk e-mail to 860 members - to inspire many others... You can send it to me by e-mail at eyes.guard@gmail.com

Keep up the good work!
