Been off for a long time. Trying to help myself again so I'm back at GYE. But there doesn't seem to be any recent posts - is anyone here?

Welcome back! There are plenty of people here. It's quiet because it's Tisha BiAv and late at night EST and early AM in other places ....

Ok phew. Idk just the recent boards seem kinda empty.

Also thats why I'm here! No eating, nothing to do - come to GYE.

I'm back after a long period of falling and ignoring it. Any general advice would be really appreciated!

Hello and welcome back.

I didn't know you when you were first on the forum, so plain welcome also.

General advice:

Take a day off from looking at women.

@ZDuvid thanks for the tip. Will try and check them out though it gets very depressing.

@AlexEliezer I always try. Not that easy... is it working for you?
