

We Are Almost Home...A Chizzuk Poem...

It's hard

Very Hard

But worth it.

Very Worth it.

The evil YH, will plan and scheme

He will make us yell and scream

He will make us stubbornly fight

And convince us that wrong is right

He will stop at nothing to make us stray

And make us waste yet another day

He will convince us that we have erred too far

And we no longer can shine as Hashem's star

How wrong he is this lousy beast

Who will soon be slaughtered at the Mashiach feast

He plays games with our minds and makes us turn away

From Hashem, our Master who loves us every single day

Yes, it's hard to see through the tricks of this bum

But we must remain focused, and we will overcome

For a Jew that gets up after a fall and grows from the pain

Has taken his Neshama and erased yet another stain

Soon enough Mashiach will arrive, not despite our falls, rather because of them

Mashiach will reveal just how close we always were to Hashem

Stand strong dear brothers and sisters, warriors of Truth

The days of the YH are numbered, he hangs on by a tooth

Yes, it seems so far away and not a reality we can touch

But it is close, very close, because Hashem loves us very much

Never before has a generation been so close, yet so far

My dear brothers and sisters, it's time to raise the bar

Let's resolve here today ,as one voice with no dissent

To do an action today to further do Teshuva and repent

Let's take it up a notch and improve something in our way and in that merit we shall truly be worthy of bringing Mashiach TODAY!!!

Yes, its hard.

Very Hard

But it's worth it.

Yes, Very worth it.

very beautiful mevakesh

and you are right

this craziness we are faced with, is because Hashem told the yetzer horah, you are dead very shortly, so give it all you got, in your last performance on the stage.

He wants to win the Oscar before he drops dead

I put a link to it in today's Chizuk e-mail #627.

Mevakesh, we MISS you!

(Funny, someone just asked me about you TODAY... Remember Ahron?)
