

G's

Posted by cordnoy - 28 Jan 2016 13:13

This tool for recovery has many different names, but i kinda figured that since i have dissed the letter "G" for so long now, it is fittin' that I devote an entire thread to it, so here goes:

Some call it "Veggies," other call it "the four G's," and I will let you search feter G.... to see more about it.

The theory behind it is a simple one. It creates connection to God. It lifts your spirits and keeps you focused.

So, without further ado:

Gratitude:

1. for almost a year of sobriety
2. for my third daughter's success
3. for the progress on my primary project
4. for the completion of our 3rd cycle on the phone
5. for the health progress in the family

Good stuff (victories) (this should be overcomin' specific challenges):

1. wakin' on time for the early shiur
2. helpin' wife with the early mornin' dressin' (w/o her even askin')
3. supported wife with her work challenges in a pleasant manner
4. looked out for another family even though it meant showin' up late for an appointment
5. skipped over a 20 second part of a clip, knowin' that it was extremely triggerin' to me

Glitch

Watched several episodes too many last night

Goals (usually specific tasks; items that we can look back on and see that we've actually made progress; something actionable):

1. Avoid distractions and be productive at work (until 10:30) (avoid lofty unreachable goals)
2. Have kavanah by first and last brachah in S"E
3. Exercise

hatzlachah to all

[I thank all those who contributed to this idea and thread; tis one worth emulatin']

Throwback to the days when it seemed like a reach to be thankful for kids going to school. As usual, cords was way ahead of his times...

If u disagree with stuff and have what to say then say it! As long as it's done in a respectful manner, it can only do good
