Welcome!!

Torah is great!

12 steps are great!

My experience is that I am so desperate I need the 12 Steps. If it told me to do jumping jacks for an hour and that would keep me sober then I would need to do it. I was never bothered by the torah/12 steps questions. Horving about "am I powerless? What do you mean! Bechira! I'm a human, not an animal!" never kept me sober. Although I was part of a fellowship at one point that talked about it a lot.

There is a book by Rabbi Taub that addresses many of these issues. The book's title is "God of our understanding".

Welcome sir,

Before I begin to even answer your question, what is it you're lookin' for? Are you scared of somethin'? Is there a certain way you wanna recover, but not another?

Please tell.

B'hatzlachah

hi cordnoy.

i guess that i am afraid to do something that is not allowed by the Torah, i am afraid of the things which are considered as christian ideas in the program.

Be'hahlama

What does that last word mean?

Is it Yiddish? Haiti?

I was on Cordnoys call partially today

i liked your honesty!

i enjoyed the statement that when there's a sobriety will there's a way, and when not...

Anytime I listen to Cordnoy I hear Torah chizuk. The Cristian's didn't necessarily invent the 12 steps, they were possibly the ones that compiled it before the Jews

It's like "B'hatzlachah" only with a twist.

????? in hebrew means 'Recovery' or 'Heeling'

so it's like saying B'hatzlachah only you wish 'B'recovery'
