Use it for something good

Call someone that has helped you in lust recovery or cordnoy etc, if you don't have someone,

you can call me (send me a PM)

Maybe the first step should be to get it filtered ASAP

It's so hard to filter iPhones.. No set thing besides passcode.. My brother sent me a new one and I wasn't prepared for it ahhh.... The hardest time is when no one is on the forum. I wish there was a 24 hour Hatzala for lust.. Not practical but would be good.

Don't blame yourself, don't blame the phone

You said yesterday you were slipping...

One of the hardest thing for guys is too get up after a fall

You did a great thing today!

Were upset in this fall as you are, and are with you, and will truck with you

You may want to consider if moving over to a different Trucking lane may be beneficial for your general recovery

THIS POSTED BEFORE COMPLETION WHICH IS WHY THERES A DUPLICATED UNEDITED CORRECT POST LATER

at a minimum you can use the restrictions to block safari and use the k9 browser instead. have someone else set the restrictions password becuae it cant be changed without losing all the settings. you can also block movies, tv shows, and apps and ibooks with explicit content. its not the greatest but its easy to set up and it gets you away from the edge of the cliff.
