

Pray or not?

Am I even allowed to pray in my room? This house did however possess many idols in the past but since some of my members had removed it from the home I guess it is okay to pray? I mean I want to know if it is or if it is not okay to pray at all in a home formerly dedicated to idols and statues? If not then I have been doing things all wrong. I often wonder if one is even allowed to pray in their own bedroom where sexual desires are present and the like.
