

Ask Google?

Posted by A precious stone - 23 Jan 2017 12:35

What does Google have to say about this?

What does Google have to say about that?

...blah, blah, blah

Could someone tell this Yetzer to shut up...

Well - it's up to me!

I've had enough of these short Google searches

leading nowhere but sin-land.

Google is very good when I'm really looking for something for myself.

This is the hadrocho I got:

don't roam or wander about in the Internet.

Only what you need.

And I heard in the name of one of my Rabbis:

One should refer to the Internet like to a surgery.

You don't go to have a surgery only if you really need it...!

Maybe you should consider giving up Google.

When you remove Google from your life, the search can't lead anywhere.

But remember that Google will easily become Bing if you don't deal with the root of the problem.

Maybe you should consider giving up Google

I'd happily give it up though I need it for my work,
But I do try to use it only when I really need it for work,
I try to lower internet use in my life to much less,
even none,
only when it's really needed,
and even then to be dependent on it,
and I say to myself that I can live without it
With G-d's assistance!
