

Foot fetish

Posted by Begonenow - 13 Sep 2018 00:30

I'm curious if any men here have had an issue with a foot fetish on women with heels or nylons. It's a big struggle for me to stop thinking about it or craving to touch their feet

We all have desires some for feet some for other parts of women. We all are sick and you have come to the right place. Just keep on posting but just don't get to detailed, it could trigger others. Sign up for the Chizuk Emails and be happy.

Welcome to the forum.

Abieham is right. The problem that we all have is called "lust" and lust can manifest itself in many different ways for different people. It doesn't matter if we fantasize about body parts, fetishes or aliens. If we are fantasizing sexually then we are lusting and if we can't stop then the GYE community is here to provide support and solutions.
