Hi I was wondering if anyone here is an addict and has a solid recovery going with out the 12 steps or sa. If yes then please share.

I'm not saying anything's wrong with sa i just wanna see all the options. Thanks

There is nothing wrong with SA. It is a G-dsend for many many strugglers. It has saved numerous individuals and has kept marriages together. For many it is a life changing tool. Just curious why are you convinced you are an addict?
