

I'm Back!

Hello everyone,

It's been a very long time since I've posted or even looked at the forums. The time has come that I've decided I must get involved again if I want to really break free from the addictive and destructive behaviors that keep returning no matter how much better I think (or wish) I am doing.

I joined the GYE program almost a year and a half ago and have grown tremendously from it. I was zoiche to experience the taste of freedom with a streak ending in the 150's. However, once I broke my streak a bunch of months ago it has been off and on ever since. I think that I've been telling myself, "Look, now I know that I can stay clean if I want to and that this doesn't count. I will go back to leaving it all behind one day again, but for now just this once." I still tried to stay clean but would keep falling every few weeks and began to care less and less, always telling myself that I can get clean again and that one day I'll go back to it for real. I've been suffering from a serious case of doing these things so often "na'asa lo k'heter".

I'm not sure what clicked, but now I finally decided that I want to go back to it for real. I very much want to go back to really making it happen and working hard on getting and staying clean for good. I know that when I was involved on the forums it was much easier. I didn't feel as alone. Yes, I do have a partner and a sponsor but I have been feeling too ashamed to give them ) and I've come to realize that at the end of the day, "ein hadavar talui elah be."

The problem is that life is so busy and it's not easy to find the time. I am now determined to find the time at least once a week or every other week to visit the forums and get involved again. Also, now that I am being more open with my partner and sponsor it can be easier to stay more in touch with them. It's not easy to admit that I haven't managed to really stop these behaviors but I think it's worth the embarrassment. I also feel bad and hope that I'm not making them meshuga with all my updates and check ins. Life is busy for all of us.

Bottom line - I hereby am reigniting my determination to get clean and be"H will be zoiche to kick the destructive habits once and for all!!

Thank you all for being there,

Determinedtowin

Checking in again.

Still going - 20 days down - but had a hard day yesterday and wanted to reach out and get back up on my horse before I have a real full on fall.

Not sure exactly what has been getting to me, but I know that once I "go there" it is only a matter of time until it's all over unless I take some serious action before its too late.

I know in the past when I would fall I would often answer the question of "What will you do next time to prevent a fall?" that I would reach out to GYE chaverim. Well, here I am following through this time and actually reaching out!

Again, with your support, I am gearing up for a good day today and will bl'n not go anywhere on my computer that I would not want my wife to know about.

Thanks for being there!

Hi Determined

I have noticed that whenever I get a clean streak going the y"n pushes me to do the little things... binge on YouTube, open provocative articles, don't be careful in shmiras einayim in the streets etc... As long as I'm not actually watching porn than I'm OK. He wears me down this way until I full out Fall.

It's really tough but we gotta beat him at his game and push back even in the "smaller" battles which can sometimes ironically can be harder.

Hatzlacha Rabah!

Reaching out is a mechayev of accountability, because the chevra want to see that next post that b'ezras Hashem you pulled through.. Powerful. Also, usually it invites chizuk. Remember we have no need to act out. Continued hatzlocha!

Thanks everyone for all the chizuk. Not even sure what to say about this next update, but I'll share my text that I sent to one of my partners last night:

Okay, so how embarrassing is this? I had a fall today while we were in touch. Pretty bad, no? I started off strong today but got weaker as the day went on and by the end of the day I had
(I can still save a drop of face by saying that look at me I'm reaching out and getting back up right away and not "cashing in" on the fall, but still...) I feel really bad that I was so connected and still didn't say anything so I could go ahead with falling. Oncel'm in that zone there's not a whole lot that will stop me. Need to keep staying on top of my game to not go there b'chlal. Ready to move on and try again from where I left off be"H. Sorry...

On a positive note, last night was a special night for me in a ruchniyusdiga way (don't want to say more than that so as not give anything away) which was a huge chizuk. Then, this morning, I was using my computer for something at home (no internet at home b"H) and got a notification that my filter was down and that I need to restart my computer for it to work. Now, in any other instance after such a fall, I would have definitely ran to work and cashed in on the "opportunity" for a while before reporting my fall and getting back in the game; I was feeling quite a tug even now. This time however, after a night like last night and updating my partner, I was able to reach out to my partner right away to let him know what was going on and shut down my computer forcing a restart of the filter before I could do anything. My filter is working fine now (as fine as it gets...).

Chasdei Hashem for stronger moments. Onwards!!

WOW!! Powerful stuff!!

You can only really tell where someone is holding when the times get rough. The fact that you got right up and started again and didn't fall again when your filter went down shows how far you've come!

Keep going strong!

Well, I'm not feeling so herolike right now. I had a bad couple of days. No matter how much I bump up my filter (I even have it in white list mode...) there's always more stuff out there to find and I think I got stuck in a mindset of "I know I can do it, I've done it before, so let me chap arain a little bit more and I'll start again tomorrow". Yeah right!

B"H last night I reached out to my partner and regrouped again. I made a new kabala that if I go anywhere on my computer that I would not want my wife to see, I will bl"n have to pay $100 of non-maaser money to tzedakah. This should help me make it happen already today. My partner also suggested that I make sure to post daily so I will bl"n do that as well.

What are your thoughts about these ideas and does anyone have any other suggestions or insights?

Thanks y'all!

I've been there...you're doing great by posting about it getting those feelings out.

I've "stress tested" most of the filters out there. Feel free to PM me, I might have an eitzeh for how you can improve yours.

B"H back on track and really feeling it! Yesterday was great and I am feeling strong today as well.

I have been hearing/having different feeling about the knaas idea and am curious to hear everyone's thoughts, both in favor and against, and why.

I'm thinking go with my new kabala until Purim to keep it realistic and sustainable. Making it to Purim also gives me more of an incentive to keep it going now and avoid falling into the mindset of "I'll start living b'kdusha tomorrow" when the going gets tough. This gives me a motivation to want to be living this way right now and not just to live a clean life at some point (which I know I can do, I've done it before... yah yah yah....).

Thoughts please?
