Poshut yid once wrote:

the yetzer tried to get me to go onto Facebook and look at some of the pictures over there with the rationalization that it is not pornography. I actually listened and went but I shut it down before I could really focus on it. I know this is his way of getting me to do something seemingly innocent which will lead me down a horrible path.

After a stumble with Facebook, "Momo" posted on the forum:

I need to learn from my fall, and this past fall has taught me that I have to cancel my Facebook account. It's really a waste of time anyway. The only reason I've been keeping the account is to see what's new in my friend's lives, see new photos of their kids, and have all of their email addresses in one spot. So I'll be "out of the loop". I'll miss someone's birthday. I'll miss a cute photo of a kid smiling. It's NOT worth it if it's going to trigger me to fall. I'm too sick to be on Facebook.

The next day "Momo" wrote:

Yesterday I said that I'd deactivate my Facebook account, and I did. Right before I did that, I said a prayer that with the z'chut of this action, HaShem should help everyone who's on this forum. Then, while I was doing the deactivation, the Y"H started voicing his objections "come on...". I countered by singing (in my head) a niggun really loudly. I felt very proud of myself after I did it, until I received a notice from Facebook that I can always activate my account again simply by signing in.

After searching the net, I found that you CAN request to have your account permanently deleted, and I did this too.

One great Ba'al Teshuvah - who has been clean now for well over a year, wrote us as follows:

The Yetzer Hara in his slimy and cunning ways, convinces so many people that Facebook is so innocent! Believe me, it is one of the worst places on the web, probably because it seems so innocent!

I personally have transgressed some of the worst Aveiros, thanks to Facebook! May Hashem have mercy on me and forgive me. May Hashem have mercy on everyone out there with a Facebook account, and give them the strength to get rid of it forever.

Same goes for mySpace and all "social" sites. The Torah forbids social mingling of the sexes. This applies 10000000% to mingling on Facebook too, and perhaps applies even more due to the anonymity involved that allows people to sink lower and lower, rachmana li'tzlan.

Please keep harping on this, until people get the message.

Another guy wrote:

Good for you Momo! I am also happy to let you know that I gave up my Facebook a few weeks ago. It's good to see I am not alone here. I became addicted to it, checking friends' profiles and pictures.

Now when I'm home with time to spare, I'm more likely to pick up a sefer and learn instead of wasting time on the computer on these social networking sites.

Also, I went through my iTunes and iPod and deleted a lot of my goyishe music, including lady singers. This is something of a financial loss, since this music cost money, but I am more than confident that 'loss' is far outweighed by the eternal spiritual gains this will bring me.

Shoshana wrote:

This forum is a wonderful opportunity for me to truly and finally feel good about myself. Facebook and the other so called social networks are breeding grounds for the disease.

Yeah, there are unfortunately times when I would like to believe that someone was accidentally switched in the hospital, and isn't really jewish, bec I just don't want to believe a jew is capable of doing such things. But the reality is to accept it and hope they return, and although this is the most difficult part - to be melamed zechus on them as well.

i know im going to go to hell for this, but im going anyway...i truly hope that these people take the bait and intermarry so that our religion rids itself of this stuff...our nation was never about quantity anyways, it was always about quality...i say, if theyre happy becoming goyim, who am i to stand in their way...go for it!...i embrace intermarriage and hope that mah mikveh mitaher es hatemeyim, kach intermarriage mitaher es yisroel....

I truly shudder at your words. I, for one, truly hope that these people do teshuvah, as they are our brothers, as they have a nefesh Eloka mi'ma'al. You ask who are you to stand in their way if they're happy becoming goyim. Did you forget that it's now Chanuka, when a group of kohanim, the holy Chashmonaim, saw Jews becoming goyim and stood up, were moiser nefesh. We can never give up any ANY Jew, Hashem's child, as our Father in Heaven never gives up on us! Don't every write any Jew off. No Jew is ever lost.

And one should never say something as horrifying as embracing intermarriage, even jokingly. Intermarriage should break our hearts.

Anyone here who has ever intentionally wasted seed has committed something called "chamur mikol aveiros sh'ba'Torah", worthy of "nidui", excommunication. Yet Hashem hasn't written us off. We can do teshuva for it. What makes us any better? So let's get off our high horses a little bit and let's focus on every Jew having a cheilek Eloka and loving that Jew for it regardless of what his current chitzyonius might look like.

calling it a holocaust is offensive both to those that intermarry and those that died in wwii...

It's not a physical holocaust, but a spiritual holocaust. We're talking about neshamos that are being lost to the Jewish people. People who intermarry may be offended, but they obviously don't understand (and/or care about) what's at stake.

interesting story that just happened to me:

I have to build an application for a client that integrates with facebook. I have never used facebook in my life, I do not even know what it is, B"H. So I went to check out their API's. But...it was blocked! My K9 did not let me in. And I do not even know my password. My wife has it. And she is not around now. Go K9!
