I am just curious for myself what most people do for our recurring problem. This is a current vote and your option may have changed (for example I only used to do the forum but now i do a 12 step phone conference) and may change in the future. But please repsond with what you CURRENTLY do.

I pray in Morse Code.

Pray?

You guys should try it too.

That is among the things I tried for years before I came to GYE. Dov teaches us that the stuff we tried is useless..... It didn't help him..... We must be spiritual & 'live' with a Higher Power but we mustn't think 'religious'....

I didn't say I ONLY pray (I also drink Woodford). I don't believe Dov is against praying, but hey you never know! BTW I pray for Hashem to fight this battle for me because I'm helpless to do it by myself.

maybe Artscroll can publish a GYE Hebrew-English-Morse transliterated siddur with commentary culled from Midrashic and Rabbinic sources (i.e. Guard, Dov and Bards)

Korban Mincha editions with genuine possum-skin

Handbooks in the back

Folder for 3-D glasses in front

Free gold-stamping of your screen-name

When you open it a little thing-a-ma-jig plays a sound byte: "Just Wanted to Say Hi", "KOT" or "Fell Shmell"

I did NOT revive this thread for it to be taken off-topic!

(Although, I also have a part in this.)

Oh well! At least I had good intentions..... :-\ (Where did THAT get me to in the past??)

Careful Yosef!

Reviving a thread is almost like starting one!
