

Friend with SSA looking for Partner/Mentor

Posted by 360gye - 27 Oct 2020 17:29

Hi Everyone,

I am currently in contact with someone who has come to the recognition that he has SSA and would like to overcome this struggle. I'm in touch wiht him via hangouts (email), and he doesn't have access to internet, only email. I believe a partner/mentor would be good for him to talk to really feel he isn't alone (ive told him that). He is 18, in Yeshiva and he would prefer someone close to his age.

If you are interested in partnering up with him, or know of someone, please let me know via email (360gye@gmail.com)

Thank you
