

Google Voice.

Posted by fightingyyid - 23 Dec 2009 00:01

Holy brothers, one very helpful tool on this site is unanimity of the user. Google Voice offers the ability to set up a free phone number that can be forwarded to your real phone. also has the ability to send sms from the computer using your "new" number. Read up on google all about it. The only way to get on is through invitation which can take a while if its done through google. I have received an invitation. With each invitation you get the ability to invite 3 other people to Google Voice. i am willing to give away one invitation to someone who really needs it on ONE condition, that you pass on one invite to another gye member in need. The first email i get to fightingyyid@gmail.com will get it.

Be strong and you will win this war!

p.s. if you really want Google Voice invites can be bought on ebay for less than 2$. Its well worth it!!

Google Voice is AMAZING!

I posted a small bit of info about it on December 1st at rehab-my-site.com/guardureyes/forum/index.php?topic=1303.0

Maybe we should start a thread where everyone who has a Google number - and is not afraid of anonymity issues - can post their numbers for other forum members to call when when weak!

What do you say guys? This could be the beginning of something BIG.

The number 1 tool to breaking free of addictions is getting OUT OF ISOLATION and getting OUT OF OUR HEADS when we feel weak.

An addict needs to be able to cry "FIRE", like we see by Reb Amram Chasid.
