

GYE Quotes

Posted by Eye.nonymous - 25 Dec 2009 07:54

You may have noticed that we here at GYE have coined quite a few of our own inspirational quotes. Or, perhaps we have been circulating quotes from elsewhere that we have found to be useful.

Here is a thread where we can collect all those quotes into a single location, for easy reference. And, perhaps, whe the MOMO stock goes through the roof, then GUE will have the funds to compile these quotes into a new GUE publication or daily calendar.

Please submit your quotes to this thread.

You may also submit other people's quotes if you have found them to be inspirational. However, don't post someone else's quote if they have already posted them here.

Upon close examination, you may find that some of our coined phrases of common currency may be found already on the list of 400 AA quotes. It is nevertheless permitted to include them here. However, please don't everyone cut and paste that entire list here again.

MODIFIED MESSAGE: In order to answer some recent questions, I am clarifying a few rules of this thread.

1. Yes, it is permitted to invent a new quote and post it here in hopes it will gain popularity.
2. Please limit quotes to short slogans, and even one or two sentences. Only include longer quotes if they're REALLY good ones.

Thankyou.

--Eye.

Life's not great, but it's better than the alternative.

Thankyou for your contribution.

...anyone else?

...anyone?

What now? I don't get it? That was a positive statement, I said that it's a GOOD thing to be alive.

I wasn't commenting on your quote. I was just trying to get this thread a little more lively.

If you have made mistakes, even serious ones, there is always another chance for you. What we call failure is not the falling down but the staying down.

When the world says, "Give up,"

Hope whispers, 'Try it one more time.'

Keep on going, and the chances are that you will stumble on something, perhaps when you are least expecting it. I never heard of anyone ever stumbling on something sitting down.

I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by the position one has reached in life as by the obstacles which one has overcome while trying to succeed nice!

This is a real good one and helps me sometimes.

And bardy, I like yours, too! I gotta run now, but I think I'm going to be spending more time on this thread...I might not be wise enough to contribute, but I'm smart enough to know where to go to soak in some good stuff!
