

Flight2Freedom on the GYE App?

Posted by concernedjew21 - 03 May 2022 22:32

Is flight2freedom incorporated with the GYE app?

I have a phone with no browser and would like to download the GYE app, am curious if I will be able to use flight2freedom from there.

Because I plan to limit my actual in front of computer time and it would be a shame if I needed to go in front of a computer to access flight2freedom.

Thanks!

Don't get the app. It has a built in browser and I fell myself with it.

As far as I'm concerned there is no actively updated GYE app available now just the old outdated one

As others here have noted the app is very outdated and not practical to use.
