

Bird Brains

Hi guys,

I posted a very long post earlier today seeing as that became the new trend on the forums.

This thread is dedicated to those of us that want to break free but don't have the time / bandwidth to read long posts.

On this thread, Hijacking will be tolerated, long posts and long signatures won't.

I reached the post length limit.

This is rigged, Cords gets more space without the g's, and Markz is the only one who knows how to make a long signature short....

Anyhow we can always write FSKOT... That's a short line that sometimes says more than most long posts...

Will preaching be allowed in this thread?
