

Grant's Rants

Posted by Grant400 - 30 Apr 2023 22:12

Seem to be out of the woods now.

On the way back in.

How long will it take to get there?

That's 100% up to me.

Where do you get all the creativity from? I love it!

Many are ready for changes, most aren't ready to make them.

Very quick glances - is still looking.

I'm learning to obsess about what I do have, instead of obsessing about what I don't have.

It seems as if I'll be eternally lust obsessed. Either actively getting my fix, or actively not getting my fix.

Can't the sun shine with a 5 minute reprieve?

Getting up late when you need to be up early is a recipe for stress especially when you have to handle the responsibilities of the household for a day. Thank your wives because they make it look so easy

Great post and realization... and quite a painful one too....

What do you think the answer is?

I think we know the answer: Everything in this world is put here as a test. Our whole purpose here is to overcome those tests. (Mesillas Yeshorim Perek Aleph)

It's still painful, but maybe this truth can make it slightly less so.

Give your wife the help she needs because she needs it and she'll pay it back to you tenfold

So in other words, this is it. Try your best, this is the way it supposed to be? Just clarifying that I understand your premise.

Oddly enough, the thought I wont live forever always cheered my up when I thought of that.

Lets jsut get rid of it before we hit the next world where things last and dont change

Besides that, I think it does get better. Youve already hit points you thought were impossible.

It does die down, it does get better, it does become less a presence.

And anyway, it probably goes away as we age. Unless you feed it, then we become embarrassing pervy old men with no filters.

Or have i hit that already?

Quite often, I want to act out, not to experience the pleasure, but to rid myself of the excruciating pain.

Which pain if I may ask?
