Welcome back!! Impressive that you've decided to do something about your situation after it being so long.

Looking forward to having you around

Welcome back!

Would you like to share what your plans are? and what's your goal?

All the best

True self

I had many largely successful but not perfect years. And I struggled in lonely guilt and frustration.

And I joined up here, and reached out to people, and met up with some life-changing friends here.... Life is a lot better now, BH.

Hope it's gonna stay that way, feel like it might, with Siyata Dishmaya.

Welcome! Here's a warm hand to hold.
