I guess the title says it all.

for everyone, bocherim, in kollel, working, married, single, or anyone with a pulse.

I guess we can post questions comments, suggestions, complaints, (sour) gripes, related to having extra time, having no time, being home, being away from home, being homeless, having access, or anything in general.

I mentioned working, I should've clarified that I meant it's for anyone, just for these next few weeks while things are hectic.
