If anyone on the forum has a keshet with R' Viener, kindly advise him about our forum and the GOOD that it is.

He is a wonderful person who may be able to help tremendously, especially since he knows the problem and is not shy to speak about it.

shkoyach.

Just heard this shiur. A must watch to everyone here.

Basically, he says that if you must have internet, you must have both a good filter and accountability reporting software of sites visited. Also, don't allow your kids to visit friends if they have internet, unless they have both too.

I am very glad that I listened to that shiur. [color=blue]Now, does anyone have any idea of how to contact Rabbi Viener?

I am planning on watching both of these shiurim with my wife.

For those of us who are fighting this battle anonymously its a good way to introduce our better half's to the dangers of the internet.

Its easier to watch a shiur like this and say, dear, the rov said no men can be trusted and you need to lock me out than to say, dear, I have a problem, please lock me out.

I currently have no filters and been clean for 130plus days. I am concerned for my children who are coming of age and am willing to use them as an excuse to protect myself.
