

Guilt and shame

Posted by radiantjaguar81 - 10 Mar 2025 02:40

Hello everyone. Im a baal tshuva, and ive been fighting with p&m for many years. I now have a girlfriend (our relationship is full shomer negiah) and after 5 months of being totally clean I fell with p&m. I dont know how to deal with this situation, i feel really depressed and sad, considering that in a few months we are getting married. I dont want to hurt her, and i dont know if its a good thing to tell her my struggles and difficulties that may cause her to leave me.

Telling her is very risky and you need guidance from a pro to see whether you should and how exactly to do it if yes. I suggest getting in touch with HHM.

Also check out Appendix A in the back of The Battle of the Generation guardyoureyes.com/ebooks/item/the-battle-of-the-generation for more on how to deal with guilt.
