As I'm getting ready to reach 6 months, i would to get some ideas how to incentivize myself, I'll be going to Israel next week so the lucky day will be while I'm spending in the holy land close to Hashem, all ideas are greatly appreciated.

I'm delighted to read about your progress, your good news gives me chizzuk. I'm only on day 18 and I haven't been at your stage for quite a few months but perhaps I can suggest that cautious optimism should be the approach. Be happy and confident but maintain some regular chizzuk to be increased if something unexpected comes up.

May we all go Mechayil el choyil.
