Chat Rooms are not appropriate places for anyone, let alone those struggling in our areas of Kedusha.

I think Yeedle II said he'd give some money too

I did say I would give and my pledge is still on the table so long as we reach whatever goal we need to reach in order to get the chatroom. I think it would be very beneficial to the website.

One thing that should be implemented into the chatroom idea, if possible, is that you cannot view the content of the chatroom unless you are signed in. Some personal things mayu be said in the chatroom and the non-GYE public should be allowed access to it.
