

Please gimme some Chizuk and or Mussar.

Hi fellow Yiddin,

I am new to the site, but what I've seen so far is extremely comforting. Before I saw this sight, I thought my cause was hopeless. I knew I could never tell anyone my sins in person and here comes this website to allow me to gain advice from people who are in the same boat as me and from poeple who have gone beyond the natural tendencies of man and succeeded.

I am a college student who learns half the day. I need to stop immediately. The internet is the biggest Yetzer Harah since the Nachash in the story of Adam and Chava. Many times I feel they are comparable. The Nachash told Chava that Hashem said she couldnt touch the tree. When in reality Hashem said she couldnt eat from it. After the Nachash pushed Chava into the tree, she saw that maybe the whole condition is canceled and she could now even it from it. We all know the rest of the story. And what was Chava's punishment? She had to go through painfull childbirths. From the Men's perspective we can see this as us doing the same. When we are Nichshal and do this evil sin, we are causing ourselves to go through a painfull childbirth. I dont know about anyone else, but after I finish giving in to my Yetzer Harah, I have the worst feeling in the world. It hurts more than any exterior wound. I really feel like "Shir Hama'alos Mimamakim Kerasicha Hashem!" It genuinely feels like calling to Hashem for help from the depths of earth, like Im on the brink of entering Gehinom. So, if we are about to be Nichshal we should try to rememebr that feeling that we had after the previous time, like were are going through childbirth so that next time we will actually think about our actions and not let our minds go astray.

I really daven everyday that everyone who wishes to, should have the Koach to destroy this Yezer Harah.

Hashem: Please all the Jews here have such holy intentions, give them the strength!

everyone should have a great day and keep your eyes down when walking, constantly think about Torah and what Hashem would want, and daven. (i wish that would all be as easy to do as it is to write)

Thank you sturggle for your uplifting words of wisdom. Every word you put on my thread is just more chizuk. I see how much you care along with everyone else. Chasdei Hashem that today I am feeling upbeat and confident that WE can do this. I thought of a great idea if anyone approves or disapproves please tell me. I think we should set a time when we try to get as many people as we can at the same time to say a Tefillah. If we start doing this we can make a thread where people sign up to commit to come on to the website at a certain and surely Hakadosh

Baruch will see this as a sign that we really want to get better. I figured we could say a Perek of Tehillim. Maybe well do it tomorrow because those that live in Eretz Yisrael are hopefully asleep. Any comment?

Dear INH,

I'm very glad to hear that you're doing better today.

Your idea sounds similar to Uri's - see this thread.

He had a similar idea, but I want us all to be saying the same perek of Tehillim at the same time. so for example we say were gonna say perek 125 with intense kavanah at 3 pm eastern time.

i think it's a good idea. maybe you can post your idea on uri's tehillim thread and see if ppl are interested. also maybe we can have two times a day. that way ppl can decide wherever they may be from what works for them.

and you are welcome. and thank you for the chizuk in return.

Dear INH - You are definitely a heilige yid and I love you. The Gmail thing is still not for me, and I hope you are in recovery one day at a time, rather than just "holding on" one day at a time.

Hi everyone,

Just an update on my matzav. So today is day 5, for all those who arent math majors that means 4 days completed. Feeling great. Shabbos was so nice. I got so much learning done. Decided that I'm going to make a real effort this year to finish Shnayim Mikrah which for me is tough even though I am a Yeshivah Bachur. Well I learned 2 hours Shabbos night and another 2 Shabbos afternoon. Tonight is a huge test cause Motzei Shabbos, the Menuval is right at my side. Right now I'm ok, but who knows what happens in a few minutes. If someone is able to chat with me tonight on Gmail that'd be amazing. Thanks email is Yiddle2@gmail.com

Shavua Tov INH,

Glad to hear you're holding on.

Hope you found someone to chat with on gmail, but remember, even if no one is awake online, Hashem's chat line is always open and operating!
