

Does Anyone Else Hate When WOH and Break Free Resoponses are Hijacked?

Posted by Ineedhelp!! - 19 Feb 2010 03:25

I have to be honest with GYE here. I may be being selfish and please tell me if I am, but I hate coming onto to GYE, clicking on the WOH or BF thread and finding that the same person responded to the last 15 people already. It is very frustrating and annoying. I also think it is annoying because the people that do it, usually dont give the well thoguht out answers that the the authors of the respective threads deserve. This practice is unfair and I feel should be terminated immediately by those doing. Like I said, maybe I am being selfish and if I am please tell me either on here or in a PM, but for my sake and the people who are calling out for help, please allow others to post as well.

I am confident that people have good intentions by doing it, but I think when people see the same "Great job! KUTGW" from the same person 15 times, they are not too inspired. They are looking for more well thought responses than that...

I dont know maybe I am off my rocker.

) for your responses. It is at this time that I would like to ask any Moderator on the forum to please close this topic. I could respond to previous posts on this thread, but I'm not going to change anyone's mind and nor should I try. The Beis Hamikdash was destroyed because of Sinaas Chinam, or loosely translated as baseless hatred. I know that nobody would have any hatred towards me for bringing this out, however, I am scared that I may have in the past or will in the future, create even an ounce of hatred towards other members of the forum.

I ask that everyone continue what you were doing whether it be posting away or whatever you'd like to do. I need to stop trying to change other people and just change myself.

Thanks everyone and sorry for causing any harm I have done to the decorum of this holy place.

Gut Voch!
