Hey Guys,

My sister alerted me to the fact that this group of individual at Stamford Uni have created this program called Spokeo that picks up details about people from their e-mail address.

The beauty of this forum of this website is total anonymity so we can all be honest with each other without fearing the repercussions.

We can't take the risk of letting these cyber criminals endanger our lives so I urge you all to go onto www.spokeo.com and to remove yourselves from their lists.

Select the privacy tab at the very bottom of the page and request your removal.

Thanks guys and I hope you're all doing well.

Keep on trucking,

DL
