

Maccabee's War

Posted by Maccabee - 30 May 2010 03:21

Alright hopefully the post name will in itself give me a little chizuk. Shabbos in general was terrible and I fell more than once, however mincha time I gave over by heart to someone in the community a long drasha which I had learnt a week before shavuos and still remembered clearly B"H. So I'm on a bit of a low right now particularly because everytime it's on shabbos it usually involves breaking it which kills me. So right now I'm in a lot of pain and I'm calling out to you my dear friends to help me through this.

I joined a phone conference this week and some interesting things were discussed but nothing which has helped yet. I know I'm doing something wrong but it's so hard to pinpoint where to start. HELP!!!!!!!!!!

"Let's come back in an hour--Jimmy's doing his Fifth Step with Santa."

I don't know who you are, Nevermore, and I'm not sure why we can't just send this stuff over to the Chrstn Corner of the site. (Oh, that's right; we don't have one.)

But I do know that you are one sick & twisted individual. And I like that. Take off your jacket and come in for a while.

Whoops.

I started it with the Santa CLAWS (vs K9) joke.

I'm so very, very sorry.

I promise to leave all the Santa / Chrstn stuff alone.

Didn't mean to confuse you.

I'll say two Hail Marys and then...

NO! I PROMISED!

Ah, the irony we ALL share here. The presence of our father's father will help keep us clean. But the presence of our collective Father (in heaven, the One Who is always with us) doesn't do it. "May the fear of Heaven exceed your fear of your fellow man."

We all have SO much work to do. Nebbach. Avinu she'ba'shamayim, please forgive us.

But the main thing here is that with each passing day we have to increase our happiness. What happened happened. Hashem knows we are not perfect. The only way we can continue is by staying strong and happy.

Maybe we all need to simply adopt a grandfather. Ideally, one who'll live with us. Who'll ask us to cook breakfast (no time to linger in bed with lingering fantasies from our dreams). Get him dressed (a reminder that dressing and undressing somebody else isn't necessarily erotic). Read him a story (one with a little more plot than the ones with plain brown wrappers). Suddenly, there's no time and perhaps no desire to fall.

I think we're on to something here.

Yes true. But I was just saying that he occupied time. THEN again thats your point.

I was just really tired it was like one in the morning, and i just had this nagging feeling in the back of my mind which would not go away. Now, however, I have to keep moving forward. Can't let the YH bog me down!!
