

My Dream

Guys, I had the most beautiful dream last night. I dreamt that we all got together for a BBQ and time of sharing... Boruch brought a big BBQ machine, and I remember seeing there Dov and everyone else... I remember feeling so much love in the room between everyone, it was amazing!

I imagine one day after 120, my biggest dream for Gan Eden would be to be together with all of you tzadikim!

Signing with tears in my eyes,

Guard.

I have had this dream a few times. Except in my dreams we gather to hear a shiur from Rabeinu HaGuard. I actually met all the people on the forum. We spoke. It was so pleasant and beautiful.

Getting weepy eyed for a minute - I had the same dream this afternoon....

Meaningful or not, it's far better than other things I have been dreaming.

I wasn't as lucky as those who actually had the Dream but I often Imagine very clearly all of us in a high place spending time together with theses huge smiles of Victory on our faces.

As the Rabbi of Ponaves was quoted, when he was relating his plans to rebuild someone said to him "rebbe u r dreaming" to which he replied with the following prophetic words "I may be dreaming but my eyes are open" and .....so they were. The rest is as they say history.

keep dreaming ....with your eyes open
