

yechida's reflections

(any questions , insights & suggestions about this thread,feel free to email me at taryaga@gmail.com)

There are many reasons we need to be where we are and who we are,most are unknown.Why do we even have to be in a situation or have in our soul so much darkness and a pull toward self-destructing negative behaviors?

I saw once an amazing thought in a sefer.Moshe Rabeinu came from a union that after the Torah was given would have deemed him a mamzer(parents being an aunt & nephew).He could not boast of his lineage.This is one reason that let him be the greatest Anov that ever lived.

We who have to deal with the stuff that's in us that we would rather not have in the first place-this pain and shame over the course of time -makes us realize that even when we b'ezras Hashem pull out of the addictions-we will never look at another Yid that is struggling with this in a negative way

We catch a Yid looking where he shouldn't be looking and our hearts are full of compassion.We will daven for him,treat him with respect,gently try to get him out of it.We would never disgrace him-not even in our hearts-because we were there.We know what it's like.In our eyes he is a potential tzaddik.

This is surely one reason Hashem gave us this urge towards baseness with all it's shades of ugliness.Yes you are special-like every Yid is-but never ever judge harshly My son or daughter that is struggling-because I love him or her - he or she is part of Klall Yisroel.Just as indispensable as you are.

you have in your right pocket-"I am dust and ashes"

you have in your left pocket-"the world was created because of me"

Time to switch the papers around.switch them

Read the one in the right every single morning.

The one on the left, you only read if someone calls you a genius,a king,a moishe rabbeinu.

the rest of the time keep it in your left pocket.don't completely forget about it but leave it there.

Heiliga Bardichev,

The Medrash on the Posuk Vayashev Yitzchok B'eretz Meguray Aviv states that "Meguray" is a loshon of being Megayer Gayrim. Just like Avrohom was Megayer Gayrim, so did Yitzchok.

Rav Moshe Wolfson asked where do we see that Yitzchok was Megayer Gayrim, Adaraba, he was Midas Hagevurah and Tzimtzum so he didn't actively pursue a life of being Megayer Gayrim?

He answered what you so elegantly said. Yitzchok never left his 4 Amos, but because of his great Avoda, people around him had Hirhurai T'shuva and were Megayer.

my dear friends,

let's call this piece "nobody home" or "out of business"

this is printed in the sefer bais avrohom, parshas haazinu. (with some detail embellishment-I have to be honest)

A doctor who was once a great sinner, later did tshuva in a profound way, and he became very close to the Maggid of Mezrich.

He asked the maggid for advice, because surprise surprise, Mr YH was around then too. And old, twisted, sick, demented thoughts would rise up in his brain like an erupting volcano. Thoughts from his distant past haunted him and tormented him.

The Maggid told him this parable. A Jew kept an inn selling beer to the townsfolk, and he slept in the back rooms.

Night in and night out these drunks came in to spend hours and hours in this inn, drinking beer, getting drunk, and sometimes getting very abusive

This Jew decided I had enough of being an innkeeper listening to these bums all night long. He became a very successful merchant selling wood.

Problem was that every night these stupid bums kept on coming for the booze, banging and smashing on the door, even though there was a sign that said "out of business" they come and come, like fleas, like roaches, give us our beer, let us in!!

This Jew tells them. Nothing Doing. Inn is closed. I'm not here. Don't even understand what you are blabbering about. I'm no innkeeper. I'm a wood salesman.

these bums scream "don't you recognize us. we drank your beer for years!!"

The Jew puts on his dumbest looking face and tells these bums "don't think I ever saw you before and I don't want to see you ever again. period."

and finally they get the message, and they leave for good.

This is what the Maggid told this holy doctor. These thoughts pop up you say to it "no one is home", "out of business". you got the wrong guy. don't know what you are talking about.

you ever encountered a harmful individual? you pretend he doesn't exist. Mr Who? never heard of him. "I'm telling you something very important" Mr YH says. "Oh Yeah? the United Nations is that Way. Go tell them your important news. You'll have a lot of customers there."

This actually could be alot of fun.

Mr YH tells you your'e a shmuck and you sing "luck,buck,ruck,kluk,yuk" and then you daven Mincha with true Simcha to the One and Only who truely loves you.

Remember this always.Hashems loves you-his succah Yidin

R' B., your new pic is phenomenal.

I'm good at snaking toilets.

And thanks for the new post, yechida. I'm working on finding a nigun for

"luck,buck,ruck,kluk,yuk"

The bardichever nigun fits good, but you need it say the yuk twice.... is that OK?

TEARS, billions of tears... how do you remain silent after trickeling out of all of klal yisroels eyes? why are you dissapearing? Can you go up and testify for all of us, how we are trying? TEARS,have you ever dreamed that out of those windows of tumah, windows xp and windows vista.... will come out such a blinding light that will conquer the world?
