

yechida's reflections

(any questions , insights & suggestions about this thread,feel free to email me at taryaga@gmail.com)

There are many reasons we need to be where we are and who we are,most are unknown.Why do we even have to be in a situation or have in our soul so much darkness and a pull toward self-destructing negative behaviors?

I saw once an amazing thought in a sefer.Moshe Rabeinu came from a union that after the Torah was given would have deemed him a mamzer(parents being an aunt & nephew).He could not boast of his lineage.This is one reason that let him be the greatest Anov that ever lived.

We who have to deal with the stuff that's in us that we would rather not have in the first place-this pain and shame over the course of time -makes us realize that even when we b'ezras Hashem pull out of the addictions-we will never look at another Yid that is struggling with this in a negative way

We catch a Yid looking where he shouldn't be looking and our hearts are full of compassion.We will daven for him,treat him with respect,gently try to get him out of it.We would never disgrace him-not even in our hearts-because we were there.We know what it's like.In our eyes he is a potential tzaddik.

This is surely one reason Hashem gave us this urge towards baseness with all it's shades of ugliness.Yes you are special-like every Yid is-but never ever judge harshly My son or daughter that is struggling-because I love him or her - he or she is part of Klall Yisroel.Just as indispensable as you are.

"Think good and it will be good"

We very much underestimate

The power

Of positive thought

Such power in positive thoughts

All the more so

In positive speech, In positive action

Such as writing down

Positive thoughts

Can do wonders

For the good health

Of body & soul

A Poem I saw this morning....

We need to teach our daughters to distinguish between:

A man who flatters her

-and a man who compliments her.

A man who spends money on her

-and a man who invests in her.

A man who views her as property

-and a man who views her properly.

A man who lusts after her

-and a man who loves her.

A man who believes he is God's gift to women

-and a man who remembers a woman was God's gift to man

.. and then teach our boys to be that man.

Strife in a home

Is very distressing

Tears the very fabric

Of healthy family life

Strife can easily

Spiral downwards

To the point

Of being completely

Out of control

Bursting violently

Via the sword

Of the vengeful tongue

Strife devastates

First step

Is to pray to God

To help remove

Strife from our homes

And hearts

Ask him for advice

Requesting help in removing

Strife

From our home

From our hearts

Learning Torah

Every day

Every night

Is the vessel

That draws the

Both physical & spiritual blessing

Into one's life

The sooner you fashion and form

This vessel

Of consistent Torah study,

The earlier

These abundant gifts

Will come to you

The larger you make

The vessel

Quantitatively and Qualitatively

So will increase

The inflow of acceptance

To the healing and joyful blessing

From above

Faith,

Trust in God

Is not a matter

Of the intellect

It's not an abstract idea

Faith infuses our daily

Our innermost being

Every single day

God creating and running this world

Is not just an interesting

Piece of information

It's related to you

Personally

Directly

Trust in God

Prevents a killer

From entering your life

That murderer has a name

It's called "Worry"

Trust in God

Also brings into your life

A trusted friend

It's name is "Simcha"

True inner Joy

Focusing on externals

Viewing primarily

The seen landscape

Tends to overshadow

The inherent beautiful structure

Of one's abode

Creating the ultimate slow deterioration

That will occur

To the hyper focused "external" home

Over the course of time

Home not meant as a display

For others who walk by it

Or who have a tour within it

To admire and perhaps envy

Its external beauty

It's for the true person

Who creates their home

As a sacred place

A private abode

Of happiness and contentment

So as one designs his home

His primary focus

Is on internal real beauty

Unique to his own calling

A true expression

To the home deep within his soul

This home is created

Enhanced, beautified

By the revelation

Of the pure essence

Within his private domain

Infusing it

With an internal beauty

That no architect can design

No contractor can build

For their work

As impressive as it may seem

Are mere externals

An empty shell

Until the one who lives within those walls

Brings forth his inner light

Into a home

That can only be called his own

Physical distance

Does not separate

A soul connection

Deep within

The soul connect

With all of her soul-root

No matter where

The physical bodies reside

And yet there is great power

In the physical union

Of connecting souls

This is the specialness

Of a minyan of Jews

Praying together

Or working together

In charity and kindness

Husband and wife

Have a powerful soul connection

That transcends time and space

So that even when physically apart

The intrinsic union exists

On the most deepest level

And yet

This union's intensity and power

Its bond and its love

Is very deeply felt

By the actual physical closeness

And more often than not

It's that physical intimacy

That is needed

To open up

The hidden beauty of the soul

Sharing its deepest self with one another

Not to be a nezem chazir be'af zahav, but I must say here that as truly as I feel your words and as deeply as my heart jumps to live them always and forever....I am still mesugal to try and jump right into the lowest porn and sexual acting out just to get the poorest, most pathetic substitute for the real thing.

And I have done it thousands of times.

I love what you wrote here, though, and try to remember to talk about your words at the table tonight iy"H. I will be surrounded by normal people then, so it will be very apropos.
