

yechida's reflections

(any questions , insights & suggestions about this thread,feel free to email me at taryaga@gmail.com)

There are many reasons we need to be where we are and who we are,most are unknown.Why do we even have to be in a situation or have in our soul so much darkness and a pull toward self-destructing negative behaviors?

I saw once an amazing thought in a sefer.Moshe Rabeinu came from a union that after the Torah was given would have deemed him a mamzer(parents being an aunt & nephew).He could not boast of his lineage.This is one reason that let him be the greatest Anov that ever lived.

We who have to deal with the stuff that's in us that we would rather not have in the first place-this pain and shame over the course of time -makes us realize that even when we b'ezras Hashem pull out of the addictions-we will never look at another Yid that is struggling with this in a negative way

We catch a Yid looking where he shouldn't be looking and our hearts are full of compassion.We will daven for him,treat him with respect,gently try to get him out of it.We would never disgrace him-not even in our hearts-because we were there.We know what it's like.In our eyes he is a potential tzaddik.

This is surely one reason Hashem gave us this urge towards baseness with all it's shades of ugliness.Yes you are special-like every Yid is-but never ever judge harshly My son or daughter that is struggling-because I love him or her - he or she is part of Klall Yisroel.Just as indispensable as you are.

A disciple

Must be

In a feminine receptivity mode

To fully accept

& receive

The wisdom of his teacher

Just as feminine receptivity

Creates deep with her

The child conceived in her womb

So too

A disciple needs

Womb-like receptivity

Where the wisdom received by his teacher

Grows within him

So that he too

Can generate deep wisdom

From within

Like a well spring

Seed

Looks plain

Unappealing

Dull

Yet when it becomes alive

Beneath the surface

Its sprouts, it flowers

When you throw away

The dull unassuming seed

You are throwing away

The fruits & flowers within it

Be accepting, be accepting

Be aware

To the potential beauty

Buried beneath this dull unassuming seed

See even now, in the seed

The reality

Of the potential beauty

Buried deep

Within the seed

Holding a six week child

We look into each other's eyes

There is a connection

Very deep

& I'm overcome

With emotions

She sees my soul

Not with her brain

Which is yet to develop

But with something much deeper

Her very soul

Which is fully aware

This is especially relevant to a girl, since the "Da'as" [which is the koach hazochor] is based in the "seichel", but "Binah" which is the forte of the woman, is based in the Neshama.

True Wisdom

Reveals an inch

Conceals two

Giving of our light

To the world

As we contain

A greater light within

Sensed & felt

By those

Who yearn for it

This is the challenge

Of a wise extravert

To conceal

& a wise introvert

To reveal

For a healthy balance

Is needed to be maintained

For the maximum benefit

For the preservation

Of inner & outer light

Of the individual soul

& the world

He or she influences

Deep Friendship

A very rare gift

Rarer still

In our "communication" age

Ironic-isn't it?

As surface contact intensifies

Depth of real connection

Ceases to be

Thank you for the DT Yechida.

My printer was out of ink for a few weeks already, and whenever I refill it I try to make the first printout of the new ink cartridges be for Divrei Torah, (I try that when I get a new pen also), so this time I used your Dvar Torah as my "opening print".

Very shtarke' Lesson which you taught there.

God creates

So much diversity

Myriads of beautiful fascinating

Manifestations

Of deep wisdom

In mineral, plant, animal, human

On all level

So that from each individual creation

By looking into it

With depth

Understanding its characteristics

& properties

We can come to see

The purpose of it all

& the true Source

God

Dvar Torah-Devorim (attached file) & Poem

Have a wonderful week dear friends!!!

May the pen

Write to the rhythm

Of the deepest feelings

Of my heart

The deepest thoughts

Of my mind

The deepest truth

In my soul
