There are many reasons we need to be where we are and who we are,most are unknown.Why do we even have to be in a situation or have in our soul so much darkness and a pull toward self-destructing negative behaviors?

I saw once an amazing thought in a sefer.Moshe Rabeinu came from a union that after the Torah was given would have deemed him a mamzer(parents being an aunt & nephew).He could not boast of his lineage.This is one reason that let him be the greatest Anov that ever lived.

We who have to deal with the stuff that's in us that we would rather not have in the first place-this pain and shame over the course of time -makes us realize that even when we b'ezras Hashem pull out of the addictions-we will never look at another Yid that is struggling with this in a negative way

We catch a Yid looking where he shouldn't be looking and our hearts are full of compassion.We will daven for him,treat him with respect,gently try to get him out of it.We would never disgrace him-not even in our hearts-because we were there.We know what it's like.In our eyes he is a potential tzaddik.

This is surely one reason Hashem gave us this urge towards baseness with all it's shades of ugliness.Yes you are special-like every Yid is-but never ever judge harshly My son or daughter that is struggling-because I love him or her - he or she is part of Klall Yisroel.Just as indispensable as you are.

Thank you Gevurah

Im very grateful to God for the opportunity to be here & very grateful to everyone here for all your kind words & support

I know that in the past year or so, my posts have primarily the life lessons in the format of poems, hand written divrei torah , (as well as hand written "pnimius hazivvug" in the married section)

I yearn to be able to post the typed lessons as well as searching & sharing important articles as I used to. May Hashem grant me the time & yishuv hadaas to be able to do so in the near future

Have a wonderful Shabbos!!!

sometimes the power of tefillah is hidden & very much underestimated

keep strong with prayer

it is a special key in our generation

Written By Kathy J Parenteau

Courage to me means having faith. Without courage I couldn't step into tomorrow. Life isn't easy but it's so worth the journey.

What Is Courage

What is courage, to stand strong in your faith,

how can it open doors

sealed so tightly

by our earthly fate?

Courage is stepping outside the box,

living your life

giving all you got.

You try to be perfect

remember God knows,

the extra mile every soul goes.

My success is a reflection of the master's hand,

from the moment of birth

his glorious plan.

I'm only human

but I breath for a reason,

every moment I live

He created a season.

Not to see me fail

but grow stronger

year by year,

courage to me means

having faith and the wisdom to know the reason we're here.

"By approaching my problems with "What might make things a little better?" rather than "What is the solution?" I avoid setting myself up for certain frustration. My experience has shown me that I am not going to solve anything in one stroke; at best I am only going to chip away at it."

Success in marriage does not come merely through finding the right mate, but through being the right mate.
