the rebbe must have 'groise kavoonis'.....

if you go to the mikva and fast three days and make a siyum on a 'fleshel' of Woodford, maybe you will understand

i forgot which rebbe it was butttt there was a rebbe who cut his nails after the mikvah on erev shabbas and a chassid asked him why he di it. and the rebbe said if you fast for 2 days, ill tell you, so he fasted 2 days and the rebbe told him that after the mikvah his nails are much softer.

the lesson he was trying to give was that not everything is so deep.

however idk if that applies here ;D

There is lots of depth to that

After the mikvah even the toughest elemnts soften up

Chassidim say

If a mikvah can transform a goy into a yid

Imagine what it can do to a yid

Kot!!!!!!
