My grandfather Z"L was walking in Boro Park one Shabbos & was greeted by someone, & someone else, & someone else, & someone else, & someone else..... At the first guys he was wondering whether he knows them, but soon realized that they are just greeting him because he is a Yid!

Guess where he lived? (Where he lived nobody greets a stranger!)

[Hey, Didn't your mother teach you not to talk to strangers?]

Boro Park

On every block a shul

but only one pool

it's in the Y

streets are ordered

but houses not afforded

lots of chasidim

litvaks, have you seen 'em?

and to be thorough

name should be Boro

cause nary a spot
